

WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP?

Regardless of your age, there is a place for you to serve at the orphanage. If you plan to go and serve as a willing vessel, being the hands and feet of Jesus, will come naturally. Your heart will be warmed as you sit in a chair or a bench or rock and hug and love a child. Perhaps it's sitting around their kitchen table helping the children put pieces of a puzzle together, or encouraging them to draw a picture on the sidewalk with chalk. One 85 year old man was overjoyed supervising water balloon toss relays. If you are a nurse or have any kind of carpentry/repair skills, there is always something to fix or paint. Our time is paced so that if you need an afternoon nap that can easily be arranged.

We will experience Sunday worship in two settings, one at the orphanage, the second at a Verbo Church in the very poor part of the city. You'll see that lack of money does not keep people from sharing the love of Jesus with others.

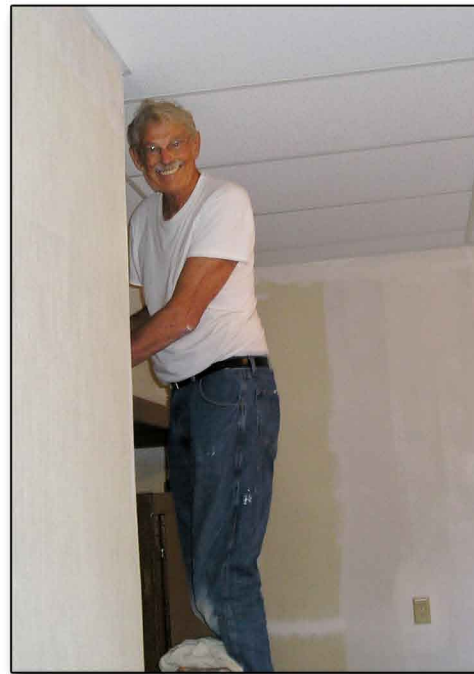

We will also experience a tour of Guatemala City where you will see local hand crafts for sale. We are collecting NEW boys and girl's underwear and socks, infants through older elementary sizes for the children.

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

- 9 Nights' accommodation
- Breakfast, lunch, and dinner provided at the orphanage
- City tour and day of shopping
- Attendance of local community Worship Services

*"The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.
Ask the Lord of the harvest,
therefore, to send out workers
into His harvest field."*

Matthew 9:37-38
