Some of the most dramatic seashore in the world is along the western coastlines of Canada and the United States. Pounding surf, soaring cliffs, high mountains and golden sunsets are best appreciated from the vantage point of a cruise ship. Now you can experience it all on the 7-night cruise aboard the Sapphire Princess.

Santa Barbara is sometimes referred to as the American Riviera. Santa Barbara has beautiful beaches, majestic mountains and an interesting and historical culture.

From grand, sweeping views to neighborhood color and character, from glimpses of history to world-class dining and shopping - San Francisco is home to a little bit of everything.

As the oldest American settlement west of the Rockies, Astoria offers a rich history for your exploration. It was first visited by Captain Robert Gray in 1792, by the Lewis & Clark Corps of Discovery in 1805, then adventuresome pioneers by the thousands. Now it's your turn to experience the excitement of exploring Astoria.

You can't avoid having an artistic experience in Seattle, Washington. Grimacing totems peek out from city parks and the neomodern Space Needle pierces the sky. Yet it retains a quiet beauty thanks to its natural setting between the Cascades and the banks of Puget Sound.

As British Columbia's provincial capital, Victoria is at once majestic and demure. Its Inner Harbor is dominated by Victoria's 'Grand Old Lady' - the magnificent Empress Hotel. A visit to Butchart Gardens, the 50-acre wonder is rated one of the most beautiful in the world.

Wedged between the snowcapped North Shore Mountains and Pacific Ocean, Vancouver perfectly blends big city sophistication with small town charm. Miles of bucolic parks weave in and out of the hundreds of trendy shops, boutiques and restaurants that make up its unique character.
