ITINERARY HIGHLIGHTS

May 18, 2010 - Depart Local Airport for Seattle, WA

Today we will fly to the Emerald City of Seattle, Washington. We will leave Seattle this morning and head for the towering Cascade Mountain Range, over Steve's Pass and into the wilderness of the Wenatchee National Forest. A stop will be made for lunch in Leavenworth, a pretty Bavarian-style village. Our route will bring us past countless apple orchards on the drive north along the Columbia River. We'll cross the border into Canada and continue on to Kelowna, nestled on the eastern shores of Lake Okanagan. (D) PASSPORTS ARE REQUIRED!

May 19, 2010 - Kelowna - Banff

Today we will motor through orchards and vineyards of the Okanagan Valley to Canada's Glacier National Park. On Rogers Pass enjoy panoramic vistas of peaks exceeding 10,000 feet. Next view Natural Bridge and the Spiral Tunnels before scaling Kicking Horse Pass. This afternoon we will enter the province of Alberta and reach the scenic heart of the Canadian Rockies, Banff National Park. (B, D)

May 20, 2010 - Banff National Park

Our morning sight-seeing will include stops at the famed Banff Springs Hotel, the Hoodoos - weirdly-shaped pillars along the Bow River, and Bow Falls. Also look forward to a thrilling gondola ride up Sulphur Mountain. The balance of the day is free to appreciate the tranquil settings of this mountain resort. (B)

May 21, 2010 - Banff - Columbia Icefields - Jasper

Our route this morning will follow the Icefield Parkway to Jasper National Park. Our first stop will be at beautiful Lake Louise, whose cold green-blue waters form a perfect mirror reflection of 11,365-foot Mount Victoria and its glacier. Scale Bow Pass, with splendid views of turquoise-blue Peyto Lake. Then climb to Sunwapta Pass to savor stunning vistas of alpine meadows, waterfalls and glacier masses. Next the highlight of the day, a stop at the 1,000-foot thick Columbia Icefield for a thrilling ride aboard a snowmobile tour vehicle. We'll also see both Sunwapta and Athabasca Falls before reaching the resort village of Jasper later this afternoon. (B,D)

May 22, 2010 - Jasper

One of the prettiest bodies of water in the Canadian Rockies in Maligne Lake. Today you will take a short trip to the lake. Prior to returning to Jasper, you will visit Maligne Canyon and look for wildlife. Then, it is back to your hotel where the remainder of the day is at leisure to enjoy this quaint town! (B)

May 23, 2010 - Rocky Mountaineer Train to Kamloops

Today we will leave Jasper by way of the famous "Rocky Mountaineer" train. Our two day train ride will bring us through some of the most amazing scenery the Canadian Rockies have to offer. We'll see lofty mountain peaks, roaring river canyons and interesting coastal forests on our way to Vancouver. Today our sights will include 12,972-foot Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, Albrede Icefields, Pyramid Falls and the Monashee Mountains. We'll overnight in lakeside Kamloops, famous for cattle raising and excellent trout fishing. (B, L, D)

May 24, 2010 - Rocky Mountaineer Train to Vancouver

Our travels today will bring us out of the mountains and to Canada's Pacific Coast. The train will follow the Thompson River, the historic Fraser River and lush fields of Fraser Valley. This afternoon we will arrive in Canada's "Gem of the Pacific," Vancouver. This friendly city has become a favorite vacation spot as well as a popular location for movie and television productions. The evening is free. You may want to consider an optional outing to the IMAX Theatre or a delightful dinner at a top restaurant along Canada Place Pier. (B, L)

May 25, 2010 - Vancouver - Victoria

This morning, enjoy a city tour of Vancouver, including Stanley Park and its famous totem poles. Catch the Ferry over to Vancouver Island and Victoria. Upon arrival in Victoria we will go directly to Butchart Gardens. This 35-acre floral extravaganza is divided into theme gardens; the Rose Gardens, the Japanese Garden, the formal Italian Garden and the showpiece Sunken Garden. Enjoy High Tea while at Butchart Gardens.

May 26, 2010 - Free Day in Victoria

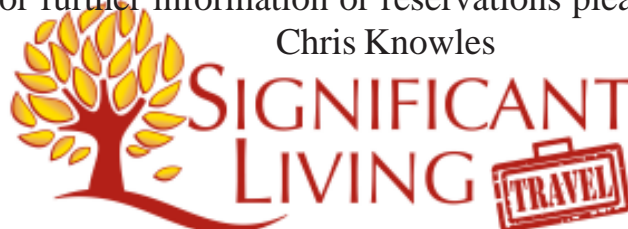

You will have a free day in Victoria to stroll down Government Street with its many elegant shops filled with English tweeds and fine china; browse through Market Square's collection of specialty stores in beautifully restored buildings; or enjoy the colorful gardens that fill the city. The day will be completed with a festive farewell dinner. (B, D)

May 27, 2010 - Victoria - Gulf Islands - Seattle

Today we will return to Swartz Bay for the ferry through the narrow waterways of the Gulf Islands and on to the Canadian mainland. Our motorcoach will be waiting to bring us back to the United States. We will end our tour at the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport for our flight home. Return home filled with memories, pictures and souvenirs of our Canadian Rockies Adventure.
